Honor Code of ENGAGE - Youth in Government

As a member of ENGAGE - Youth in Government, I pledge to uphold the highest standards of integrity, responsibility, and respect. I commit to:

1. Honesty: I will be truthful in all my endeavors and interactions, whether in discussion, written communication, or during formal proceedings. I will not engage in plagiarism, deceit, or any other form of dishonest behavior.
2. Respect: I will treat all individuals with dignity and respect, regardless of differences in opinion, background, or beliefs. I will listen to others with an open mind and engage in civil discourse.
3. Fairness: I will compete and participate fairly, recognizing the efforts of others and not seeking to gain unfair advantage through any means. I will respect the rules and guidelines established by ENGAGE and strive to create a level playing field for all participants.
4. Responsibility: I accept responsibility for my actions and their consequences. I will act as a role model for others, demonstrating accountability and ethical behavior in my roles and duties.
5. Courage: I will have the courage to stand up for what is right, even when it is difficult. I will voice concerns about injustices or violations of this code and actively work to uphold the principles of ENGAGE - Youth in Government.

By adhering to this honor code, I pledge to contribute positively to the legacy of ENGAGE - Youth in Government and to foster an environment of trust, learning, and respect among all participants.
